

Sun Sentinel Paid summer internship program

Location: Fort Lauderdale and Deerfield Beach
40 hours a week

Description: South Florida's largest daily newspaper, winner of the 2013 Pulitzer Prize Gold Medal for Public Service

We're offering paid internships for the summer of 2016. This is an intensive 11-week program, from early June to mid-August, which offers hands-on experience and training in a dynamic newsroom setting.

Responsibilities:

Description: South Florida's largest daily newspaper, winner of the 2013 Pulitzer Prize Gold Medal for Public Service

We're offering paid internships for the summer of 2016. This is an intensive 11-week program, from early June to mid-August, which offers hands-on experience and training in a dynamic newsroom setting.

Interns are paid minimum wage and they get to report and write the news, shoot and edit photo and video, design, for print and digital, and engage in social media. They will work closely with reporters, visual journalists and editors, who will serve as mentors. We place our interns throughout the newsroom: Metro, sports, features, business, design, video-photo, audience development-digital, El Sentinel (Spanish weekly). We allow for cross-training among departments.

Qualifications:

Candidates must have completed basic journalism courses, have some experience working for a campus newspaper or off-campus publication, or have completed a previous media internship. We prefer juniors and seniors. We also accept graduate students.

Send a resume and two clips or portfolio link to internship coordinator and editor Deborah Ramirez, dramirez@sunsentinel.com.